PUBLIC COMMENTS

"The ability to build on undeveloped land. Housing for seniors. More and better bike paths. More than 70 residents were at Arlington Middle School Wednesday night, many to offer their views on the Town of Poughkeepsie's proposed master plan update. Town officials stressed final decisions won't be made until April, and public comment will continue.----- A number of speakers again urged the Town Board to reconsider proposed restrictions on business signs, which was a major topic of the first public hearing last month." Poughkeepsie Journal, Thursday, February 1, 2007.
