

quality and safety of the ball fields such as recently putting in a grass in-field at Crown Heights and upgrading the concession stand at Red Oaks to name a few things. The Board agreed to put this matter on the August 22, 2012 Town Board Meeting just to make sure that everything is appropriate in terms of the structure and the soundness. Where all volunteer labor is provided, the people volunteering will sign releases and show that they have insurance. Engineering will look at the plans and Tim Sickles will look at them from the Code respect.

Supervisor Tancredi spoke to Vinny and Joan and said "The man hours you put in as volunteers and behind the scenes, it's incredible and truly beneficial to the community and we appreciate all that you do and we probably don't thank you enough, but once in a while we get you in here and thank you and so we do appreciate all that you do." He meant this to relate to all the working volunteers.

(Including Town Day)
Councilman Baisley: We just discussed Cal Ripkin at our meeting and the seniors. We've gone ahead and starting the borings and we are waiting for the results so we can go one to the next step with the Senior Center and so far there has been no issues. There is nothing behind the building so far, and so we should have the results back in a couple of weeks.
