

P.B.A. Press Release

Members of the Town of Poughkeepsie Police Department's Patrolman Benevolent Association will be volunteering their time to conduct a "Law Enforcement Day" at the Poughkeepsie Galleria Mall on Sunday, February 24, 2013. The event will run from 12:00pm to 5:00pm and will consist of various police displays, demonstrations, and public services.

A few examples of the day's activities include:

Child Identification Program- You can have a laminated identification card containing fingerprints, photos, and descriptive information made for your child.

Child Safety Seat Installation Demonstration- Learn how to properly install your child's car seat to increase their safety.

K9 Demonstration- Watch an up close and personal demonstration of how the Town of Poughkeepsie K9 teams do their job.

Pipes Demonstration- Listen to a brief history of the bagpipes and a short musical session played by a member of the Town of Poughkeepsie Police Department.

Meet McGruff the Crime Dog- McGruff will make special appearances throughout the event.

SWAT Team- The Town of Poughkeepsie Police Department SWAT will have a display at the event.

Additionally displays will include various Police Vehicles, School Resource Officer, Crime Prevention, Crisis Negotiations Unit, and a display from the Town of Poughkeepsie Police Department Detective Division.

Come to the Poughkeepsie Galleria Mall this Sunday and share the day with the men and women who take pride in serving and protecting the Town of Poughkeepsie year after year.

If you have any questions concerning the Law Enforcement Day, please contact Police Officer Steven Leung at (845)485-3666.
